

1 A RESOLUTION honoring David Haydon upon his retirement.

2 WHEREAS, David Haydon has been President of Haydon Materials for twenty 3 successful years, and has worked for the family-owned business since 1989; and

4 WHEREAS, David Haydon graduated from Eastern Kentucky University in 1974
5 and started working at Brandeis Machinery, while also starting small businesses of his 6 own; and

7 WHEREAS, David Haydon has served as chairman of numerous boards and 8 associations throughout Kentucky, including the Kentucky Crushed Stone Association, 9 Plantmix Asphalt Industry of Kentucky, and Kentuckians for Better Transportation. He 10 has also served as a board member on the Kentucky Association of Highway Contractors; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, David Haydon has contributed to the betterment of Kentucky's 13 infrastructure by working with city, county, and state officials to ensure roads in their 14 areas were well-maintained and safe. Throughout his life he has given the utmost priority 15 to giving back to the communities his business serves; and

16 WHEREAS, David Haydon has contributed to the substantial growth of Haydon 17 Materials and its affiliates, and he has paved the way for his successors to continue the 18 growth of the progressive family-owned business for years to come; and

19 WHEREAS, David Haydon will still remain a part of Haydon Materials in the same 20 way that his father, Albert "Ossie" Haydon, and his brother, Jodie Haydon, have upon 21 their retirement. However, he will ensure that he has more time to spend with his family, 22 especially his grandchildren, Mary Claire and Jack.
